

Position	Security Consultant – Enterprise Architect
Reports to	Director of Technical Services
Locations	Seattle, WA
Description	Leviathan seeks a passionate and talented Security Consultant. The individual will be responsible for assessing technology and communicating the observations and recommendations to Leviathan’s clients. Specifically, the individual will be responsible for evaluating the design and implementation of enterprise security controls including strategic technology direction, operational controls and process, and network architecture. The candidate will be expected to act independently, as well as collaboratively with clients, peers, partners, and managers to ensure technical excellence and client satisfaction.
Required Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Five or more years of experience with a Fortune 500 company or companies either as an employee or a consultant with the responsibility of meeting enterprise wide, internal and external regulatory and security requirements.• Five or more years providing IT and/or security consultation to customers.• Able to work independently or with a team.• Able to multi-task and deliver consistently on deadlines.• Experience developing and implementing holistic plans to business requirements and root causes.• Strong mentoring and leadership skills.• Demonstrated ability to solve complex problems with expertise and ingenuity.• Strong written and verbal communication skills.• Able to communicate risks and recommendations to Senior Leadership and management.• Training experience a definite plus.
Travel Requirement	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Up to 35% per year as needed to support engagement delivery
Education Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• College degree in a technical field or equivalent experience preferred

For further information or to submit your resume please contact Rex Warren via rex.warren@leviathansecurity.com or 866.452.6997.